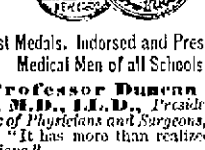
LIEBIG CO'S COCA BEEF TONIC



Highest Medals. Indorsed and Prescribed by Medical Men of all Schools.

Professor Duncan Campbell, M.D., LL.D., President Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, etc., etc., says: "It has more than realized my expectations."

Professor J. M. Carmichan, M.D., Professor of Surgery New York Medical College, says: "My patients derive marked and decided benefit from it."

Professor H. Goullon, M.D., Physician to the Grand Duke of Strong; Knight of the Holy Cross, etc., says: "It gives more tone than anything I have ever prescribed."

Sir Robert Christison, M.D., LL.D., F.R.S., Physician to her Majesty the Queen; President Royal British Association, etc., etc., says: "The properties of the Coca are the most remarkable of any known to the medical world. From repeated personal trials I am convinced that its use is highly beneficial and tonic."

Professor F. Seeger, Ph.D., M.D., of New York City, Physician-in-Chief Infirmary for Diseases of the Throat, Chest and Heart; Honorary Member Imperial Medical Societies of St. Petersburgh, Russia, and of Athens, Greece, etc., etc., says: "It is far superior to the fashionable and illusive preparations of Beef, Wine and Iron."

Valuable in malaria; ague; malarial debility; dumb ague; low fever; marasmus; paralytic; spinal and nervous affections; female weaknesses; Bilious and liver affections; weak throats; palpitation and other affections of the heart; epilepsy or falling sickness; weakness of the voice of actors, singers, public speakers and clergymen; colic; flatulency; seasickness; falling out of the hair; asthma; shortness of breath; wasting diseases; etc., etc. It is gratefully refreshing and restorative after prolonged mental and physical strain. It is pleasant and agreeable, and is readily retained by the most delicate stomach. Dr. McBean (British Medical Journal) found it of great service in consumption. Baron von Humboldt says he has never known a case of consumption or asthma among those accustomed to its use, and that they live to a great age, retaining their mental and physical faculties to the last (Cosmos).

From Washington.

THE NOMINATION OF POSTMASTER GENERAL.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The nomination of Horace Maynard is not acceptable to the Southern Democrats, but if Gen. Longstreet of Georgia is appointed to succeed him as Minister to Turkey, the two nominations may go through the Senate together.

THE CLAIMS OF GRANT AND BLAINE MEN.

The friends of Senator Blaine are confident that he will receive the solid vote of Minnesota and a large share of the vote of Illinois in the convention held in these states today, while the Grant men are equally confident that he will not. The result, whichever way it may be, will be very important.

MR. LORING'S FISHERY BILL.

Mr. Loring introduced his bill for the repeal of the law based upon the treaty of Washington relating to fisheries in Canadian and border waters. There will be an attempt, in spite of the determination to adjourn on the 31st inst., to secure the passage of this bill.

A PASSAGE OF ARMS IN THE HOUSE.

When the Agricultural bill was concluded Mr. Horr made one of his humorous speeches. He began by expressing his admiration of agriculture, and then branched off on the salt manufacturing interests of his district, and in doing this he attacked Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, whose efforts at free trade reform he mercilessly ridiculed. He ridiculed Townshend's habit of calling attention to his willingness to be held responsible for his utterances. The duello was but a relic of barbarism. Why, he once knew a bull pup which would not take a dare, and yet he wasn't a high order of dog after all. He would suck eggs, and was finally shot for killing sheep. Townshend rose and replied that while he was always ready to debate with a gentleman, he had long since learned that it was undignified to hold controversy with a clown.

AID TO AN UNFORTUNATE TOWN.

Senator Cameron offered and the Senate promptly passed without reference to a committee, a bill appropriating $25,000 for the erection of a postoffice in the town of Milton, which was recently destroyed by fire. The erection of a postoffice is a new departure, but it was regarded as a charitable work.

WORKING FOR AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

The Randall Democrats are endeavoring to obtain from Democratic Senators pledges that they will not speak on the Bayard bill concerning Deputy Marshals, or the Morgan bill regulating the counting of the electoral vote. They hope in this way to secure an early adjournment.

SENATE BUSINESS.

Secretary Schurz sent a communication to the Senate in answer to a call for information concerning the number of acres of public lands claimed by the land grant railroads which have not been built, stating that it would be impossible to give the information for some time.

Senator Anthony moved a reconsideration of a bill which was passed yesterday in his absence, restoring to the Navy, Somerville H. Nicholson, who was dismissed for drunkenness.

Senator Morrill presented a memorial from the Wool Growers' Association, asking that no change be made in the present duties on wool.

ADJOURNMENT.

The House adjournment resolution was referred to the Appropriation Committee.

PERSONAL.

Senator Edmunds has returned from New York, where he went to meet his wife and daughter, who returned yesterday from Europe.

General Longstreet.—He has been Offered the Mission to Turkey Vacated by Horace Maynard.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Turkish mission, made vacant by the appointment of Horace Maynard as Postmaster-General, has been tendered to General Longstreet, the celebrated ex-Confederate.

The Washington Boat Race.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Noon. The weather is clear, with a very slight breeze. The streets are filled with strangers. Every incoming train brings large numbers to witness the Hanlan-Courtney boat race at 4:30. Numerous stands are erected along the river front, each capable of seating from 600 to 5000 persons. It is estimated that 50,000 persons will witness the race.

At 11 A. M., Referee Blaike issued the following: Word from both boathouses is to the effect that everything is in readiness, and the rowing apparatus of both men in perfect order.

The Boat Race.—Hanlan an Easy Winner.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—At 6.45 this evening the long-debated question was fully settled, and Edward Hanlan has won the title of Champion Oarsman of America. The great race, if it may be called a race, occupied just 28 minutes and 39 3-10 seconds, by computation of the official timekeeper, though three seconds less was claimed by parties upon the referee's boat.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Largest Attendance ever Known.—All Night Session of the Committee Probable.—The Convention Adjourns Until Today.—The Immense Crowd.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—The city is overwhelmed with visitors to the state convention, the largest attendance ever known on any similar occasion. As but six hundred visitors' tickets could be issued, thousands were unable to get admission to the hall. The members of the state central committee who distributed these tickets were besieged all day, and the corridors of the State House were packed with an anxious throng, vainly seeking admission.

A COUPLE OF TEST VOTES.

Debate followed on the motion for a recess, which resulted in a test vote of 218 against 349, which is considered a majority of Grant's friends of 101.

A resolution offered by Mr. Logan, binding all the contesting delegates to abide by the decision of the Convention, was carried by the same vote.

A RECESS TILL EVENING.

The Convention convened at 5 o'clock, and requested the committee on credentials to report the names of the contested delegates. It being stated that the committee would not be able to report for an hour or more, the Convention then took a recess till 8 o'clock.

REPORT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE.—ADJOURNMENT TILL MORNING.

The convention convened at 8 o'clock. After some delay the committee on credentials reported its list of delegates from all the counties except Cook and Greene, which was adopted, and the persons named therein declared to be members of the convention, which then adjourned till 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THE PERIODICALS.

THE ATLANTIC for June is in hand and will be found a good number. Mr. Aldrich and Mr. Howells continue their serials both of which are increasing in interest and power. Mr. Henry C. Angell continues his acceptable personal reminiscence of W. M. Hunt; the social reminiscences of Washington are continued, and tell something of the Jackson era, when good manners were not held in high esteem in government circles; an anonymous critic writes thoughtfully of Mr. Elihu Vedder's pictures, and Mrs. E. A. Walker tells of the effect which the mysteries of the Bible have had upon some nursery people. Mark Twain writes out one woman's part in a conversation by telephone, which of course is funny. The literary notices are on Furness's variorum edition of King Lear, by Mr. R. G. White, and the very interesting work entitled Dangerous Tendencies of American Life; some other books are noticed more briefly. The Contributor's Club occupies much space, and is as good as it usually is. The poems are by F. L. Gardner, Jean Scofield, C. F. Bates, Edgar Fawcett and Longfellow.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY fully maintains its reputation. It is beautiful and summery. All tastes are consulted. There are papers on Rocky Mountain Nights, Spring Horealouts, that is, in New York and vicinity, with illustrations; Thackery as a Draughtsman, with more than thirty reproductions of the novelists' sketches; Life in Florence, Mr. H. J. Raymond's journal of The Philadelphia Convention of 1856, Henry King's account of A Year of the Exodus in Kansas, which will be read with eagerness by those who have been puzzled over that phenomenon, while the third paper on The Dominion of Canada deals with its political and social history in an able an interesting way. Mr. Cable's Grandissimes loses nothing of interest, and Mr. Schuyler's Peter the Great presents a lifelike portraiture of the character and times of the founder of the great Russian Empire. All the departments contain articles of both special and timely interest.

HARPER'S is one of the most elegant and entertaining numbers of that periodical ever issued. Its table of contents is extensive and varied, and the illustrations superb.

THE MAGAZINE OF ART published by Cassel, Petter, Gilpin & Co., of London and New York, No. 7 of current volume presents a very attractive appearance. In its department it has no superior and its circulation should not be confined to artists as it will ornament and adorn every refined home. Price $2.75 a year, or 25 cents for single number.

THE UNITED STATES SERVICE, a monthly review of military and naval affairs, contains articles from some of the best known officers such as Chief Engineer J. W. King, Capt. J. S. Payne, Admiral Ammen, Commodore E. Simpson, Admiral Preble, etc., etc. L. R. Hamersly, Phila., is the publisher.

The Evening Post says: "It is only necessary to add that it is amazing that Whittaker should have thought it well to write a note of warning to himself, assuming that the case remains in its present position, it is only fair in considering what effect this matter will have upon the admission of negroes to West Point to remember that Whittaker is seven parts white." Perhaps he made that "Republican" attack upon himself in one of his dark days.

PERSONALS.

.....Marshal MacMahon has recently sold his residence in Paris to pay the debts he contracted while President.

.....Mr. Frank Jones has accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Allenton, R. I., and will soon be ordained.

.....Mrs. Julia Ward Howe will lecture at Plainfield, N. J., tonight, in aid of the building fund of All Saints' Episcopal Church of Scotch Plains.

.....Since the death of her brother, Dr. Webb, Mrs. Hayes has cancelled her engagement to visit the wife of ex-Governor Claflin at her country place in Massachusetts.

.....Thomas Bayley Potter, the English Liberal member of Parliament, writes to a friend in this country, "I am not in love with your third term in America. It is a little like old Dizzy and jingoing; the one-man worship."

.....The Emperor of Japan is a slender man, of medium height, with an olive complexion, small hands and feet, and dark eyes of piercing brilliancy. He is the representative of the party of progress and civilization, and is a person of strong and determined character.

.....Thirty-two Woman's Christian Temperance Unions have been added to the Indiana State Union, through the labors of Mrs. Emma Molloy, since Jan. 11. Mrs. Molloy has been addressing large audiences in every section of the state, conducting about three meetings daily.

.....Mr. Swinburne has published a sonnet in his most intense style about the proposed desecration of Westminister Abbey with a statue of the prince imperial, and figures to himself the austere dead getting up and leaving their enforced companionship with one of the wicked race of Bonapartes.

.....A few weeks ago President and Mrs. Hayes went to Mount Vernon and passed the night there, sleeping in the bed formerly used by George and Martha Washington. The custodian of the property says that it is the usual thing for Presidents to do. Lincoln, Grant, Johnson, Buchanan, Pierce, Fillmore and Tyler, he says, have all slept in Washington's bed, and he supposes that other Presidents have, but that is as far as his memory runs. Some of the Presidents named occupied the bed several nights during their term of office, and President Pierce was in the habit of going to Mount Vernon to pass the night very often during the summer.

WILL OF THE LATE JOSEPH SELIGMAN.

The late Mr. Joseph Seligman, of the firm of J. and W. Seligman & Co., bankers, by his last will and testament bequeaths the sum of $5,000 to the Society for Ethical Culture, and directs his executrix and executors to distribute the sum of $25,000 to such charitable, benevolent and educational institutions and associations and in such amounts as the executrix and executors may select, without regard to any creed, faith, race, or religion. One third of the remaining estate is set aside for the use of the testator's wife during her life, which sum, after her decease, is to be divided among his children, share and share alike. After specific bequests aggregating $120,000 to his six unmarried children, he directs the remainder to be equally distributed among all his children. The shares of the sons are to be paid to them absolutely upon reaching the age of twenty-five years, while the shares of the daughters are to be invested for them, and the proceeds to be paid to them annually. His capital in the business of Messrs. J. & W. Seligman & Co. is to remain invested therein. The testator appoints his wife, Babet, his brothers, James and Jesse, and his son, David J., as executrix and executors under the will.

Shortly prior to his decease the testator donated the sum of $10,000 to the relief works of the Society for Ethical Culture for the free kindergarten and industrial schools of that society.

There is an unmistakable panic among the Democrats concerning the purposes of Mr. Tilden. They say his silence and mystery fill them with alarm. They hear a good deal of talk about second choices, but somehow when a state convention assembles, there is in the midst of it the barrel and a Tilden agent—and lo! the outcome is a Tilden delegation to Cincinnati. They interpret this to mean that the claimant is, as usual, playing a sly game; that he has instructed his agents to assume an air of indifference to his chances, to pretend that there is no prospect of his running again, in order to throw his opponents off their guard and prevent any organized support of any other candidate. This has worked so well that he has already captured delegations from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, Connecticut, Rhode Island and several other states, and the anti-Tildenites cry out that he will have the whole Convention presently if somebody isn't put in the field against him. The Southern states are excitedly called upon to select a candidate and go to Cincinnati united upon him. That's a good idea. Let them consolidate on Hendricks.—[Tribune.

Although a greatly coveted honor, it appears that a dinner with the British Queen does not afford much gustatory enjoyment. A distinguished divine, who occasionally preaches at Windsor and dines and sleeps there afterward, says the dinner is a remarkably unsatisfactory affair to a hungry man. It is not considered etiquette to continue eating of any particular course after the Queen has partaken of it to her satisfaction, and as Her Majesty eats very little the courses are hurried over. After dinner there is hardly time to take even one glass of wine before coffee is brought in. The Queen does not put her cup on the table, but sips a little as the servant holds it on a salver. Then Her Majesty rises, and of course the guests all rise and stand back from the table. The Queen then makes the round of the room, stopping to talk for a few minutes to any one of the guests whom she may delight to honor, and then goes out, leaving the guests to amuse themselves as they like for the evening.

W. D. Morgan, late president of the defunct North America Life Insurance Company, whose affairs were found to be in such a wretched condition that the receiver has not yet been able to straighten them out, finds the air of England to be more congenial than that of North America, and he has therefore started in business in that country. This time, though, it is not insurance: that is now too small for him. He is president of the board of trustees of an organization called the "Hyde Association," which was formed for the purpose of obtaining from the Bank of England suppositous hundreds of millions of dollars, the accumulations of years grown upon an original sum or sums imagined to have come into the hands of the "Old Lady of Threadneedle-st.," from some persons by the name of Hyde, whose descendants, to the number of thousands, are believed to be in this country. The organization levies an assessment upon every person who can trace descent to anybody named Hyde, and who is credulous enough to imagine the possibility of sharing in the untold millions aforesaid, the ostensible object of the money thus obtained being to employ counsel, etc., to get at and get the millions. If they fare as well as did the policy holders of the North American Life, we feel sorry for them, and should not be a bit surprised if, when the bottom falls out, this lordly schemer should again find it convenient to change his place of residence.

It is rather an important fact that the Roman Catholic Archbishop Taschereau, in Quebec, has issued a pastoral condemning trade-unions. He puts in a succinct form a truth which we have had occasion over and over again to assert, when he says: "A man's labor is his own, and it is his liberty to sell it at whatsoever price he pleases." This sets forth the gist of the whole matter. It is announced that any Catholic who shall attack or conspire to attack any person, because such person works at a price which he thinks fit, shall be excommunicated. As the labor troubles have been considerable in Canada, and the gross tyranny with which strikes are usually conducted has there been particularly rampant, the pronouncements of the Archbishop against them is specially timely; and everybody who in the least respects personal independence and liberty of choice will be rejoiced that His Grace has thus spoken.

The first convention of the Irish National Land League met in New York Tuesday, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization of all branches throughout the United States. P. A. Collins was elected permanent president. Some business was transacted, and the convention adjourned until Wednesday. Michael Davitt, secretary of the Irish Land League, has arrived from England, and will be present at the Land League Convention and make known his plans, as he comes to take Parnell's place in agitating the League question.

We had serious doubts of the truth of the dispatch announcing George Eliot's marriage with "an Mr. Cross," and only accepted it with an "if." Now the statement is contradicted, and we are told it is the late legal widow of Lewes that is married. If the event had happened in this country, it wouldn't have taken over a week to get at the truth of the matter; some paper would have had a reporter interviewing George Eliot and John Walter Cross inside of 24 hours. Even Herald men are stupid in London.—[Springfield Republican.

Under the postal laws, if you spoil a stamped wrapper or envelope you can have it redeemed at its face value at the post office. When postal cards were introduced, postmasters were instructed to redeem such as were spoiled before using at the rate of four cents in stamps for every five cents in face value of the cards. Many postal cards are spoiled in printing, others in direction, while many printed cards are simply unused. These can all be exchanged at the rate mentioned.

The Springfield Republican has let its little pussy out of the bag. It proclaims that Bayard can carry Massachusetts. It is not many weeks since the S. R. was anxious to create "a party that can wait." It will wait a long time before Bayard or any other Democrat will carry Massachusetts in a Presidential year.—[Boston Journal.

Boston has great hopes of outstripping New York in the not far distant future. New York's foreign commerce has only increased one and one half per cent. in the last fiscal year. Boston has gone up two per cent. Boston has an acknowledged preeminence in some things—divorces, for instance.—[Graphic.

"I DON'T WANT THAT STUFF."

Is what a lady of Boston said to her husband when he brought home some medicine to cure her of sick headache and neuralgia which had made her miserable for fourteen years. At the first attack thereafter, it was administered to her with such good results, that she continued its use until cured, and made so enthusiastic in its praise, that she induced twenty-two of the best families in her circle to adopt it as their regular family medicine. That "stuff" is Hop Bitters.—[Standard.

THE WHITE SEWING MACHINE!

THE BEST.

IT IS SIMPLE in construction, easily managed, nearly noiseless, and so easy to run that a child can use it without fatigue. It has a self-threading shuttle and a tension nearly automatic when once regulated; it will sew the lightest fabrics or the heaviest goods; it has great capacity and power, and is as durable as any machine made. All its wearing parts are case hardened and readily adjusted. See it before you buy. Many ladies now regret that they did not examine it before purchasing other machines.

We have other first class machines of great merit constantly on hand.

We have also a splendid assortment of

to which we invite the inspection of the public.

The Journal is a large 32 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty-five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1880.

Hanlan and Courtney did row a race after all, and Hanlan beat, probably by previous arrangement.

Many a Newport boy could make better time in a row boat than that scored by Courtney or Hanlan.

It looks as if our townsman, Gen. Warren, was worthy of a vindication, and as though he would get it as the result of the present investigation.

Senator Gordon, of Georgia, has resigned his seat. He has been in politics all his life and has held office for more than twenty years and wishes in his last days to amend his ways, and if possible die in peace.

Senator Blaine says that, though he studied law for two years in the office of one of the most eminent practitioners in the United States, he has never been in court as an attorney, plaintiff, defendant, witness or juror.

Detroit people will give President Angell of Michigan University a complimentary reception and banquet before his departure on the Chinese mission about the middle of next month. Three hundred guests from all over the state are to be invited.

In New York, Tuesday, the four river pirates who boarded the schooner Victor, in Flushing Bay, were indicted by the grand jury for felonious assault and burglary in the third degree. They pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to the state prison for ten years each.

There is an exodus going on from Vermont. The reports say that nearly 200 residents have gone for homes on Nebraska and Kansas farming lands. Since Jan. 1 over 1000 persons have left the northern section for the West, and the exodus shows no sign of abating.

A prominent Blaine man informed Secretary Sherman that in case Blaine could not be nominated, he and all others he had talked with were in favor of throwing their votes for him and thereby defeating Grant. He is very confident that the friends of Blaine will adopt this course. Anything to beat Grant.

Minnesota gives its solid vote to Windom, but Windom himself is for Grant. Illinois will go for Grant which pretty much settles the question that he is to be the Republican candidate. Nothing but a combination of the friends of all the other candidates can defeat him, as far as present appearances indicate.

It is getting to be a question as to what constitutes "liberality" in opinions. A man who holds one set of doctrines is just as likely to be "liberal" as is a man who holds the opposite. It is not the doctrine but the spirit in which it is held that settles the question. A man may hold a "liberal" theory and yet be the most pugnacious, illiberal and bigoted man in the community. Bob Ingersoll for instance.

The Boston Transcript says: "The time is approaching when the schools stop studying and begin to "prepare" for exhibition. It would be better to stop school when the studying stops." We are strongly of the opinion that there is altogether too much preparing for examinations in our public schools, and quite too many examinations for the good of the pupils. Children should not be made to feel that the chief end of study is to pass well at these reviews, which is now too frequently the case.

A NEW RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT LINE.

Improvements for travel and transportation on Long Island, giving quick and frequent connection between New York and Newport, are making, and the new line will be opened on June 15. The new steamers will be run from Greenport, the eastern terminus of the road to Newport, stopping at Block Island. These boats are to be sidewheel, with accommodations equal to those of the finest Sound steamers. They will be owned by the Eastern Steamboat Company, which has just been organized. On the Long Island railroad first class cars will be run at a rate covering ninety-five miles in two hours and a half. The time between New York and Newport will be six hours, with only two stops. The company will put upon the route two large freight steamers, which will run direct to Boston. This will give to the Long Island farmers direct access to the Boston market, an advantage which they long wished for, as produce that is now sent from New York to Boston by the commission dealers can then be sent direct to that market.

I fear that Spendthrift, who is now under treatment at the establishment of Barrow, the Newmarket veterinary, will become a confirmed roarer."

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT AT FORGERY.—An unsuccessful attempt was made Tuesday afternoon to get a check for $100, purporting to have been signed by Mr. P. S. G. D'Hauteville, a well known summer resident, cashed at the Aquidneck National Bank. The check was presented by a lad named Alexander Meyer and was drawn in favor of T. Frederick Denn. The check was received by Mr. Hopkins, the cashier, who asked the lad where he obtained it. The boy stated that he had received it from his father who, he said, lived on Bath road. Mr. Hopkins retained the check until he could find out more particulars as to its origin, &c., and told the lad to go and bring his father to the bank. The circumstances being brought to the knowledge of the boy's friends he was taken to the bank yesterday and after being identified by Mr. Hopkins, was placed in the hands of the City Marshal. The lad is rather weak-minded and had no idea that he was doing wrong. He is an orphan and has until recently been in an orphan asylum, in New York, where he remained thirteen years, when he was brought here by his brother, a worthy young man, who keenly feels the unpleasant position in which his brother has placed him. The lad will either be sent to the Reform school or to a home in the West. Mr. D'Hauteville has interested himself in the boy's welfare and will do all that is possible for him, he being convinced that he is not accountable for his clumsy attempt at forgery.

REV. MR. OSLER.—This very popular preacher, who for more than twenty-five years has been pastor of the Church of the Yatvch, in Providence, preached in the Second Baptist Church last night. The large lecture room was well filled with an appreciative audience. He chose for his text I. Peter, 4:16, "Yet if any man suffer as a Christian let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God on this behalf." For nearly an hour the audience manifested the greatest attention and interest, while the preacher in a very clear, logical and forcible manner, discussed the theme, "What is it to be a Christian?" The sermon was well calculated to awaken within all who heard it a desire for a more complete and consistent life. The interest in the meetings in this church is increasing, as is seen in the nightly attendance. Mr. Hutchinson preaches tonight at 7:30.

READY TO PAY ITS DEBT.—In June, 1870, the little town of Bushnell, in McDonough county, Illinois, issued bonds to the value of $50,000 for the benefit of the Rockford, Rock Island and St. Louis Railroad company. These bonds were payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from June 1, 1870, at the option of the town. By a recent vote of the town they have been declared due and payable, and Mr. J. C. Cadwallader, supervisor of the town, has given notice that they will be paid, with the accrued interest thereon remaining unpaid, at the office of the treasurer of the state of Illinois in Springfield on the first day of June next. The town of Bushnell is entitled to honor for its promptness in meeting its financial obligations, its action contrasting well with the spirit of repudiation that is far too prevalent in the West. Some of these bonds are held by parties in this city.

The Sans Souci Garden will open one week from next Monday, May 31st, with Sullivan's comic opera of "The Contrabandista." Numerous improvements will be noticed at the Garden this season. The main building has been enlarged, the floor pitched, and the seating capacity is 250 more than last year. Mr. Wright, the florist, will have a more attractive display than ever. The company engaged is a thoroughly excellent one, as will be seen by the following list of names: Miss May Alice Vars, of the N. E. Conservatory of Music, who is to be principal support to Miss Blanche Roosevelt next season; Miss May Leighton and Miss Partridge, of the Ideal Opera Company; Miss Annie Gunther, of the Boston Opera Company; Messrs. Henry Melton and Charles S. Bond, of this city; Messrs. H. E. Dixie, J. W. Montgomery and Nichols, of the Ideal Opera Company. The chorus will be a very large one.—[Prov. Star.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON.

The court came in this afternoon at 2.15, present, Judge Stiness.

The jury being once more at liberty, was again called to the panel for the trial of the case state vs. Sigourney B. Goff, appealed from the Justice Court in which he had been fined two dollars and costs upon a complaint for intoxication; Mr. Solicitor Peckham for the prosecution and Mr. Gilpin for the appellant.

Some of the jurors were challenged off and then the proceedings had to be suspended, until jurymen could be summoned on a venire, to supply their places. Had the number of jurymen heretofore drawn, been present now, the supply would have been had at once, without delay. That's the way it works.

At three o'clock the case was continued to the November term, Judge Stiness being obliged to leave for Providence, where he had to be present upon the bench of the Supreme Court tomorrow morning.

In case of Joshua Peckham vs. Oliver H. P. Coggeshall, nil di, judgment is rendered for plaintiff for $219.00 and costs.

Langley & Bennett vs. Sarah O'Leary, nil di, judgment for plaintiff for $77.80 costs.

Albert Hammett vs. William P. Slocum, nil di, two cases—judgment for plaintiff for $80.85 and costs in one case, and for $301.70 in the other.

Anthony Swift & Co. vs. Maurice Houlihan, nil di, judgment for plaintiff for $50.-13 and costs.

David M. Anthony vs. Maurice Houlihan, nil di, judgment for plaintiff for $90.41 and costs.

In the case of state vs. George A. Webb which is an appeal from the judgment of the Justice Court of Newport by which he was sentenced to pay a fine for an alleged violation of the hack ordinance, his counsel Mr. Honey, moved to dismiss the complaint on the ground of certain legal defects. The court sustained Mr. Honey's motion and the defendant was discharged.

At 3.15 the court was adjourned to 10.30 Thursday morning, when some other member of the court will be present to preside.

FOURTH DAY.

The court came in this morning at 10.30, His Honor, Chief Justice Durfee, present and presiding.

At eleven o'clock, upon the arrival of Assistant Attorney-General Coll, James F. Beaumont and Annie S. Barker, indicted at this term for adultery, were brought into court for trial, Patrick J. Galvin, Esq., appearing for the respondents.

The following jurors were empanelled for this trial, both respondents being tried at once:

William B. Franklin, of Newport, foreman; George A. Weaver, Samuel Carr, Theodore R. Helms, of Newport; George N. Dennis, Charles E. Boyd, and Wm. R. Dennis, of Portsmouth; Luther W. Wilcox and Luther H. Millard, of Tiverton; Richard Brownell and Samuel E. Hunt of Little Compton and Edward B. Dickens, of Jamestown.

At 12.45 the testimony for the state was concluded and the court was adjourned to three o'clock this afternoon.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

PROGRESS OF THE ELECTIONS.—THE EVER PRESENT COLORED QUESTION.—SOME OF ITS PHASES.—LAY REPRESENTATION.—BISHOPS' PREROGATIVES.—WOMAN AS A CAUSE OF DEBATE.

CINCINNATI, May 17, 1880

The Conference met on Friday last with Bishop Andrews in the chair, and he showed himself a most excellent presiding officer. His rulings were prompt and good, and he pushed forward business vigorously. Bishop Simpson made a statement which was of some interest. Tillman Valentine, colored, a carpenter of Jacksonville, Florida, has presented credentials as a lay delegate from the Florida Conference and been awarded his seat. By a rule of the Discipline, no layman can be a delegate to the General Conference unless he has been a member of the church, in full connection, for five consecutive years preceding his election. Bishop Simpson said that it had come to his ears that Mr. Valentine had formerly belonged to this church, but had left it and joined the African Methodist Episcopal Church, throwing his influence against the regular body. Two years ago he returned and was duly elected a delegate his papers being all regular. The question arose as to his eligibility. It was referred to a committee of five, consisting of the Rev. Drs. Mathack, Newman and Hunter, Judge Reynolds and Senator Willey, five of the most distinguished members of the conference. This illustrates what I have said of the impartiality with which the colored man is treated in this body. A Bishop could have his case referred to no more respectable tribunal. Later in the day, Henry Clay, colored delegate from Washington Conference, asked if, with such a charge hanging over him, the gentlemen could exercise the functions of a delegate. He was evidently puzzled, and seemingly annoyed, at the condition of things. The Bishop informed him that a seat having been awarded, he would enjoy its full privileges until the conference decided otherwise. The owner of the illustrious name was enlightened, but hardly satisfied. That little episode of joining the African M. E. Church and "working" against the other body rankled a little, but there was no help for it.

MORE ELECTIONS.

This matter disposed of, the conference proceeded at once with the elections. The Rev. Dr. Rust was reelected secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society, but the Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, who made the brilliant speech noticed in my last letter, received 107 votes for the position. Just here, and out of its place according to the program, it was moved to go into the election of editor of the Christian Advocate published in New York, of which Dr. Fowler has been editor for the last four years.

I may say here that the election of Dr. Fowler to one of the missionary secretaryships gives universal satisfaction. His great ability is everywhere acknowledged, but he made an indifferent editor, and is thought too overbearing for a bishop. As missionary secretary his preaching talents will come into play, and no opportunity will occur to bring him into collision with his brethren. Dr. Fowler is a lucky man. It is not everybody, with marked peculiarities, who finds when defeated in one struggle so comfortable a place waiting for him. Then, too, is left a vacancy in the Christian Advocate which was greatly desired.

Dr. Curry, a man of acknowledged strength as a journalist, though a little too bold for his own comfort as the editor of an official paper, had been displaced by Dr. Fowler after filling the place for twelve years. The New York East Conference, to which he belongs, has been agitated all the year on the subject of his return, it being urged that his removal had been caused by an act of treachery on the part of their own delegation at the General Conference held at Baltimore in 1876. He was elected a delegate by 193 votes, but knowing once said that was a compliment, not a recommendation, and Dr. Buckley, of Hanson Place Church, Brooklyn, his almost invariable antagonist, was elected from the same body by a vote of 170. These two gentlemen were put in nomination on Friday morning, Dr. Hare, of New York, nominated Daniel Curry, and he was seconded by Dr. Smart, of Detroit. Dr. Graw, of New Jersey, nominated James M. Buckley, and he was seconded by Dr. Price, of Baltimore. When the result was announced Dr. Buckley was found to be elected, the vote standing James M. Buckley, 228; Daniel Curry, 116.

THE COLORED BISHOP.

Saturday morning saw another large attendance of visitors which promises to continue until the question of a colored Bishop, at least, is out of the way, for this bone of contention is continually coming up. The speech of Delegate Hammond almost caused a "bhoom" on the subject. On Friday afternoon the Committee on Episcopacy decided to recommend the election of a Bishop of African descent by a vote of thirty-nine to eight. The full number of the committee is ninety-five, but such is the press of work in the other committees that it is impossible to get anything like a full vote. This was decidedly unexpected, as there were no signs of such a thing early in the week. But the committee foiled its own hands by a resolution that the chairman should not make the report to the Conference until instructed so to do. A meeting was called on Saturday night to suggest the names of suitable persons and give authority for making the report. No worse time could have been chosen, and the meeting opened with only eighteen persons present, and the highest number at the close was twenty-nine. It was hoped to get the matter before the conference today, so that if a Bishop was elected he might be consecrated on Wednesday at St. Paul's with the white Bishops elect. But the conservative members had no notion of submitting to this in silence. It was urged that no quorum was present, and when that point of order did not prevail filibustering set in, and succeeded in staving off the vote. They meet again today and may succeed in getting the report in tomorrow, although that is Memorial day.

My best information is that whatever the committee may recommend the conference will not agree to elect such a Bishop. The feeling grows that to do so would be a recognition of the color line. While the opinion is freely expressed that a man should not be proscribed from the office because of his color or previous condition, it is also as firmly held that no man should be advanced to this dignity because of his color.

Today there was more talk about a colored Bishop, or rather an effort to talk. The Rev. A. W. Milby of Wilmington Conference presented a memorial, very harmless as it proved, on the matter, asking that it be read, and put on its passage. Dr. Buckley moved that it be referred to the Committee on Episcopacy without reading, but reckoned without his host. The conference will not be gagged, especially on this subject, even by so great a favorite as Dr. Buckley. So it was read and then referred. To show what the temper of the conference is, take a simple illustration: Dr. Walden of Cincinnati Conference wanted the rules suspended today that he might introduce some resolutions, and was refused by a large majority. A short time after, the Rev. J. M. Shumpert, colored, of Mississippi, asked a similar favor, and it was granted immediately. Perhaps they thought Dr. Walden ought to have attended to business closer at the regular call. Germane to this colored Bishop question is the opinion of the Rev. Dr. Marshal W. Taylor, Presiding Elder of the Ohio district of the Lexington Conference, and one of the candidates of the colored delegates. He says openly that he is not in favor of a colored Bishop—the time has not yet come.

LAY REPRESENTATION.

A lay delegate, in whose judgment there is much confidence, said one day last week that this was a very conservative conference and would make no radical changes. Perhaps he is right, but it runs fearfully near to the edge of some of them. On Saturday night the Committee on Lay Representation, I am told, agreed to recommend to the General Conference a plan for lay representation to the annual conferences, on a basis of one layman to six ministers. There can be no doubt that the lay delegates in the General Conference are a valuable addition. But it is urged that in the annual conferences there would be no corresponding place for them, seeing that they are not law-making bodies, but are chiefly concerned with ministerial business. Perhaps so, but this change will come, for all that, though it may not be reached this session.

BOOK CONCERN FINANCES.

It seems to a looker on that the progress of business is very slow, and that a great deal of work will be crowded into the latter days of the month. Tomorrow being the day for Memorial services and Wednesday for consecration of the Bishops, will necessarily cause a delay. This is the fourteenth day of the conference, and beyond the elections next to nothing has been done and they are not finished yet. The Committee on Book Concern made a partial report on Saturday recommending that the deficiency account of the Episcopal fund up to January 1, 1880, be charged off to profit and loss. It has been lumbering the books for many years, and it is no wonder that the book agents want to get it out of the way. This deficiency, it was explained in answer to inquiries—for the delegates seemed determined to go to the bottom of everything—was at it the date named $120,311.21, of which all but $1,800 had been incurred during the four years 1872-6. There was quite a debate on the recommendation. Governor Evans of Colorado proposed that this deficiency be apportioned among annual conferences and referred to them for collection. Dr. Lanahan said that it might as well be referred to the moon and stars. Dr. Olin of Wyoming said that the deficiency was hopelessly lost, and moved the previous question, which was ordered, and the recommendation was agreed to. There is a determination on the part of the conference to start fair on the collection of the Bishops' salaries so as not to embarrass the matter by entailing on the churches this additional burden. It certainly conflicts with the sixth restrictive rule, which provides that "they (the General Conference) shall not appropriate the produce of the Book Concern, nor of the Charter Fund, to any purpose other than for the benefit of the travelling, supernumerary, superannuated and worn out preachers, their wives, widows and children." But it is plain that the General Conference will not hesitate to cross lots if that is the shortest way of getting to a place. Only it says very starnly, and means it too, "This is all wrong and never ought to have been done. Take care you do nothing like it again." The committee also recommended the suspension of the publication of the National Repository and the Golden Hours, but this was deemed too sharp a measure to pass without examination, and both subjects were laid on the table for the present.

A WOMAN QUESTION.

This morning a paper was handed to the secretary which proved to be a preamble and resolution on what seemed a very simple matter, yet which kept the conference busy till the hour of adjournment. This paper asked that in consideration of the great evil of intemperance, and the efforts of Miss Frances E. Willard for its suppression, and especially in view of the fact that women, who constituted two-thirds of the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church had no representation on the floor of the conference, Miss Frances E. Willard, President of the Woman's National Temperance Union, be invited to address the conference for ten minutes from the platform. Your correspondent was just getting ready to enjoy the speech, for the lady's reputation as a platform speaker is very high, when Dr. Buckley rose to oppose it. He denied that women were not represented in this conference. Every delegate was a representative of every man, woman and child in the church. Otherwise the church was a despotism, which it was not. Moreover, he said, this was a temperance conference and did not need any instruction in the matter. If any delegate was not a total abstainer he was here without having on the wedding garment. The Methodist Episcopal Church was a total abstinence church, and the conference could not afford to waste its time in such a way. Beside it opened the door to endless interruption. Other women on other subjects were waiting to be heard, and there would be no end to it. While he sympathized with the advanced position of women in this age he would not accord to her anything more than he would to a man, and so he hoped this motion would not succeed. It was a brilliant and audacious speech, and there is not another delegate who could have made it. His sharp points and keen sallies were received with cheers. Dr. Flood of the Erie Conference, replied to him, and he too was greeted with cheers. It was a town meeting for the time, and Bishop Wiley was helpless to enforce the rule which forbids applause.

Dr. Hatfield took sides with Dr. Buckley, and said, "we should stick to our business and then go home." Dr. Kynett, secretary of the Church Extension Society, said after the discussion had gone on some time that they could have heard that ten minutes' speech without all this discussion and saved three-quarters of an hour, and so he moved the previous question, which was carried. On putting the resolution to the house, or rather an amendment to the resolution, which varied but little from the original, Dr. Buckley called for the yeas and nays, and found forty-nine delegates to help him, it taking fifty to secure the call. This took thirty-five minutes, and the result was 218 yeas, 119 nays. On the chair submitting the resolution as amended Dr. Buckley again called for the yeas and nays. Dr. Smart said this was filibustering and frowned heavily. Some cried "Shame," but Dr. Buckley said this whole thing was an infraction on their business time, and he persisted. This time the fifty did not appear. Then came a motion to adjourn which was lost, and the amended resolution was passed. Dr. Buckley moved to adjourn—the opera house has to be given up at 1 P. M., and it was time—explaining that he did not want to hear Miss Willard at such a limited hour on that, and the motion prevailed.

It was a very lively time, and some of the delegates did not seem to know what to make of it. But it was Dr. Buckley's misfortune to press his position so unduly. He may find his own weapons turned against him. He was clearly right, but having been whipped he should have acknowledged it gracefully, and not frittered away the time of the conference. Of course Miss Willard will speak, but when I cannot say.—[Cor. N. Y. Post.

Miss Genevieve Ward is announced to make her appearance at the Prince of Wales Theatre, London, in the role in L'Aventuriere, in which M'lle Sarah Bernhardt failed.

Mr. J. B. Toole paid Mr. J. M. Byron £5,000 for the sole right of performing The Upper Crust. The piece is drawing large audiences at the London Folly Theatre.

Mr. Edward B. Perry, the blind pianist of Boston, has received very warm appreciation in St. Louis, where he has given some recitals under the auspices of the Beethoven Conservatory.

Miss Annie Louisa Carey intends to spend the summer in Switzerland, among the mountains of which she hopes to regain the robust health of which the exacting work of a long professional season has robbed her.

The fourth musical festival began Tuesday night at Music Hall, Cincinnati, O., under favorable auspices. The financial success of the enterprise is already beyond question, as the sale of seats already made reaches nearly $50,000. The concert was given with a chorus numbering 620 and an orchestra of 156.

That Albani was so badly received at La Scala, in Milan, was, according to London Truth, entirely owing to the impresario having raised the prices. "When the prima donna, who was in excellent voice, heard herself for the first time in her life hissed, she stopped and the tears rolled down her face; and I hear that the third evening she declined singing. As none of the audience could find a fault with her singing or acting, it was somewhat hard for them to visit the sins of the impresario on her."

COD LIVER OIL!

—WITH—

Pepsine and Quinine

offer this preparation of Cod Liver Oil to the profession, in the confident hope that it will supply a pleasant and efficient medium of administering that invaluable remedy.

It is unnecessary at this date to refer to the very high character which has been borne by the "Caswell Cod Liver Oil" since its first introduction; it is sufficient to state that this oil is used in this new preparation.

The proportion of oil held in the emulsion is fifty per cent.; the finest Turkey Gum Arabic and the purest White Sugar are the other ingredients employed in its manufacture.

The addition of Pepsine and Quinine is made with the view of enabling the most delicate stomach to retain and digest the oil.

"WOMEN NEVER THINK."

If the crabbed old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of women in determining the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in selecting Hop Bitters as the best, and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a mere nominal expense he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false.—[Picayune.

SUNDRIES.

Wild oats are the only crop that grows by gaslight.—[Josh Billings.

Ladies in preserving fruit put away more that others, simply because they can.

When my wicks in vats are wank,
And my last stray thoughts are th ink,
Who saved me from a wheezeful flunk?
My Pony.

The small boy's digestive apparatus is undoubtedly the nearest approach to perpetual motion that the world has yet known.

A Regular Turk. Tommy (who has just been operated on)—"I mean to be a dentist when I grow up." Aunt Annie—"Why, dear?" Tommy—"To have revenge."—[Punch.

A South End man attended a circus for the first time in thirty years and burst into tears at the vivid recollections of his vanished youth recalled by the remarks of the clown.—[Boston Post.

At a lecture in Keene, N. H., last week, the hall was connected by telephone with a sick man's room half a mile distant. The experiment was entirely successful. The man died in forty-two minutes.

A little four-year-old was at one of our photographic studios having her photo taken. The artist said, "You must keep your mouth shut, my dear, and your eyes open," as the little miss showed a decided inclination to open her mouth and close her eyes. But on being instructed she braced up, and after a few moments wonderingly asked: "Now, what shall I do with my nose?"

The change of administration in England extends even to the Queen's household. The Duchess of Wellington, who has been Mistress of the Robes to the Queen is obliged to retire and make way for a Liberal. It is to be hoped that the Duchess will have her week's washing all done and the clothes nicely put away in drawers before the new woman takes charge.

FASHION NOTES.

A peacock with spread tail is the correct screen for the now empty fire-place.

One of the new neckties for men bears the name of "Ninety-six-in-the-shade."

Hooks and eyes in plain and colored steel have been introduced as substitutes for buttons.

As soon as it becomes too warm for a young lady to wear a cloth hat, she begins to think of wearing flannel dresses.

Scotch gingham and thin piques are made into neckties for gentlemen this season, and silk ties are expected to retire in dismay.

Bonnets are small and tie close to the side of the head in almost all shapes, even when the front and back are flaring, as they are in the gypsy shape.

The loosely woven flannel called beige de santé is a comfortable material for pretty dresses to be worn in the country, or for morning wear in the city.

The black Surah costume are among the choicest summer suits. They are made up over taffeta silk, and are as light as grenadine and probably will prove to be cooler.

At an English outdoor gathering a lady wore an entirely yellow dress, with suggestions of poppy red about it. The Princess of Wales carried a parasol with festoons between each rib, the festoons being covered with soft pulled folds.

A new lawn-tennis costume has the underskirt kilted almost its whole length and crossed by dark bands. The tunic, which is of a contrasting color, is turned back on one side and faced with the material that forms the skirt, and on the other side is a large square pocket. The tunic is draped by a bow at the back, and the waist is plain and round.

Fine bedroom suites are now made of plain and highly-polished curled maple, the head and footboards of the bedstead in large, plain surfaces of maple, with bamboo moldings in common maple or birch, the imitation joints stained black. The dressing case is low, for a toilet to be made sitting, with a broad, low sheet of bevelled glass for the swing mirror.

Extravagance in dress is very marked in New York this season. It exceeds the flush days of the war. "I've been dressmaking for twenty years, but never did I put scissors into so much rich material or lay eyes on such magnificent trimmings," said a fashionable modiste a few days ago, and others in the same business report a like experience. In fact, such goods were never before imported. Some of the passementerie trimmings of cashmere and rainbow beads range in prices as high as $35 and $40 a yard, with fringes to match in richness.

A pair of giddy yellow butterflies were frisking in the Public Garden, the other afternoon, when a gay parasol decorated with an embroidered bouquet of field flowers passed along. "Ho, ho!" cried Madame Papillon, "the world is coming to an end! Why are those flowers moving about up in the air, my love?" "That, my dear," said Monsieur Papillon, turning a summer-sault over a big scarlet tulip, "is the latest fashionable expression of high art. Don't you be taken in by it." But he spoke too late, for the silly butterfly went fluttering after the scentless marguerites and poppies, quitting the bright flower beds and her dancing companion to satisfy that morbid curiosity which is the birthright of her sex. —[Boston Gazette.

ABOUT ADVERTISING.

If you have goods to sell, advertise.

Hire a man with a lampblack kettle and a brush to paint your name and number on all the railroad fences. The cars go whizzing by so fast that no one can read them, to be sure, but perhaps the obliging conductor would stop the train to accommodate an inquisitive passenger.

Remember the fences by the roadside as well. Nothing is so attractive to the passer by as a well painted sign: "Millington's medical mixture for mumps."

Have your card in the hotel register by all means. Strangers stopping at hotels for a night generally buy a cigar or two before they leave town, and they need some inspiring literary food besides.

If an advertising agent wants your business advertised in a fancy frame at the depot pay him 200 per cent. more than it is worth, and let him put it there. When a man has three-quarters of a second in which to catch a train, he invariably stops to read depot advertisements and your card might take his eye.

Have a few posters pasted all over town mixed up with minstrel streamers and theatrical bills; they will appear very prominent and attract about as much attention as a black spot on a speckled dog.

Have thousands of little dodgers printed and hire a few boys to distribute them. You have no idea how the junk dealer and paper rag man will respect you.

A boy with a big placard on a pole is an interesting object on the street, and lends a dignified air to your establishment. Hire about two.

Advertise on a calendar. People never look at a calendar to see what day of the month it is. They merely glance hurriedly at it so as to be sure that your name is spelled with or without a p, that's all.

Patronize every agent that shows you an advertising tablet, card, directory, dictionary or even an advertising Bible if one is offered at a reasonable price. The man must make a living.

But don't think of advertising in a well-established, legitimate newspaper. Not for a moment. Your advertisement would be nicely printed and would find its way into all the thrifty households of the region, of the farmer, the mechanic, the tradesman in other lines, and into the houses of the wealthy and refined, all who have articles to buy and money with which to buy them, and in the quiet of the evening, after the news of the day has been digested, it would be read and pondered, and next day people would come down to your store and patronize you, and keep coming in increasing numbers, and you might have to hire an extra clerk or two, move into a larger block and more favorable location and do a bigger business, but of course it would be more expensive—and bring greater profits.—[New Haven Register.

THE SPRINGER ESTATE.

The Board of Health of New York received a letter on Tuesday, from Oswald H. Springer, of No. 319 Oxford Street, London, who asks that the death records be examined for the 100 years between 1780 and 1880. He writes that he is a lineal descendant of a man named Springer, who emigrated from Germany 150 years ago, became rich in New York, and died without heirs, leaving a princely fortune. His London descendant now wishes proof of his death in order to present his claim. The great Springer estate in New York alone is well known to amount to many millions in money, and if the London correspondent of the Board of Health can successfully establish his claim he will solve a problem that has puzzled half the lawyers of the state and made the other half rich for the last hundred years.
